Web & Graphic Designer | Content Writer | Email Marketing Specialist

I use my 10 years experience as an artist and graphic designer to create a strong relationship between brands and their customers. My copy writing and photography skills have produced six figure returns with Google SEO and email marketing that continues to out perform the market average. I am looking for a brand who values these skills to create winning campaigns together.

Experience

The Bear Champ Inc

Web Design | Email Marketing | Photography
Miami, FL | Chicago, IL | March 2021 - Present

The Bear Champ Inc. is an art and design studio created by JC Rivera. JC collaborates with big brands and local businesses to design advertising, merchandise and murals. With my design and marketing skills, I helped create a website that earned over six figures within a year of it's launch. My role is to design and manage the site, photograph and manage inventory, write all online copy, create email campaigns, edit videos and more.

WIX Partner Program

Web Design | Brand Design | Email Marketing
Remote | 2015 - Present

WIX is a web development and business management platform that partners with creative agencies and designers to provide a one stop solution for online business. WIX provides it's users with designers like myself to create an elevated experience on the platform. WIX supports its design partners while providing business leads. I have been able to design websites, logos, manage marketing, inventory and much more for over 25 businesses with WIX.

Education

Harper College - Graphic, Print & Web

I was lucky enough to learn from top tier industry professionals from big press operations and agencies like Leo Burnett. I studied graphic design, press operation, color management, web layout, photography and editing.

B-School by Marie Forleo

This is a renown school designed for business owners and creatives who don't have the time for a traditional MBA. In one year I learned how to identify ideal customers, how to write copy directly for them and how to earn money from providing value

Accepted & Connected - Communication

An intensive 12 month training where students learn to communicate through conflict and thrive in high stakes relationships in work and personal environments. This group learning environment sharpens listening and communication skills.

The Copy Cure - Content Writing

An info 4 month course where writing is broken down into a science. Here I learned to communicate with customers directly, drive sales in an online business using websites, social media and email marketing content.
